

July 21, 1939.

Dear Eric:

It has been necessary to change the dates in Buffalo, instead of being there the 2nd and 3rd, we are there the 1st. In order to break the jump from Richmond on the 30th we are playing The Grays in Bellefonte the 31st a twilight game.

I suggest that you leave Richmond after the doubleheader Sunday, come to Baltimore and stay Sunday Night, leave there in time for the game in Bellefonte Monday. Ask Bill if he wants to drive right on to Buffalo after the game, if not, you will have to stay in Altoona. I will see you before this, as you are playing Red Bank, N. J. on the 28th, and you will no doubt spend that night in Newark.

I want you to let me know at once if Bill wants to drive directly from Bellefonte to Buffalo, so I can write and cancel the reservations we have already made and ask the man for rooms on this night.

Yours very truly,
